

Biographical Sketch

Gary Hawk, JD

Gary Hawk is an organizational consultant for Apex Performance Strategies. Since 1994, Gary has facilitated peer groups for CEOs, business owners, and executive directors.

Gary has been Principal of Inner Circle Coaching & Mentoring, an executive coaching firm that specializes in helping executives execute their strategies successfully.

He guides and challenges his clients in clarifying business and personal goals, and in thinking through the means to attain them. Each project is tailored to the specific needs of the client. With over 40 years experience in both large and small businesses, Gary brings a rich business background to his consulting engagements. He has executive experience working in both manufacturing and service environments. Gary was owner of a four unit chain of Jenny Craig International for several years. He is an attorney, and served as General Counsel for a producer and syndicator of television commercials, as well as a rapidly growing, plastics manufacturer.

Representative client industries include: Qualcomm, Hewitt-Packard, Biogen-Idec, Maxim Pharmaceuticals, San Diego Data Processing, San Diego Airport Authority, Aradiant, Paychex.

Consulting Specialties:

- Coaching Technical Leaders
- Leadership and Executive Development
- Mentoring and Advising CEOs/Business Owners
- Senior Executive Coaching – CEOs, Senior Staff

Gary has a Bachelor of Science degree in Business Administration, and a Juris Doctor from the University of Nebraska.